

DO YOU WANT TO STUDY ABROAD?

Yes!
Do you know where and what you would like to study?

Yes! I am ready to get going!

That is fantastic! Have you registered to take the TOEFL® test yet?

Of course! I am counting down the days!

Good luck! As you wait for test day, join our online communities on Instagram, LinkedIn, and Facebook! Connect with other students today!

I do not know yet

Use our search tool to explore locations you may like to go and the schools that accept TOEFL® scores!

Explore possible scholarship opportunities and financial aid packages you may qualify for. Then, talk to your family if they plan to help cover the cost.

I'm not sure
Do you think it would be a valuable experience, but have some concerns?

Yes!

Are you worried about financing the experience?

Yes, but I do not want to give up my dream

Stay on track with a study plan. Use TOEFL® prep books and enroll in the free, online MOOC study course. Form study groups with other students through our TOEFL® community on Facebook to help each other stay motivated!

Maybe, but I am not sure why it is important

Going abroad can make you more marketable when looking for potential jobs! Many employers look for candidates with study abroad experience and strong language skills.

That sounds like what I want!

Fantastic! You can start growing your global network today by joining our LinkedIn page and registering for the TOEFL® test here!

This is great, but I am still not sure

Hearing about other students' experiences abroad may help! Watch our TOEFL® Success Stories series to see how taking the test helped other students reach their goals.

Not yet!

What are you waiting for? Take the next step and register for the test!